Associate

carlos.cabrera@jgl.com 787-767-1030 939-378-1694

Mr. Cabrera is an associate whose practice focuses on admiralty and maritime matters, corporate matters, tort claims, and general civil litigation. He has represented clients before administrative agencies and local courts and draws on experience developed across academic, judicial, and litigation settings.

His practice is informed by strong legal research, analytical, and case management skills, which enable him to address complex matters with precision, sound judgment, and close attention to client objectives.
During law school, Mr. Cabrera served as Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review of the University of Puerto Rico School of Law and as a judicial intern to the Honorable Raúl Arias-Marxuach of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico.

Before entering the legal profession, Mr. Cabrera was awarded a Presidential Scholarship to attend Berklee College of Music, where he studied music composition, arrangement, recording, and production.
