Mr. Carrasquillo is a dedicated attorney specializing in tort, maritime, employment, and general civil litigation. His litigation practice spans both federal practice and local appellate work. His professional journey includes significant roles within government agencies, including the Department of Economic Development and Commerce (DDEC) and intellectual property law, having successfully achieved trademark registrations.

In 2024, Mr. Carrasquillo joined JGL, bringing valuable experience and insight from his tenure as a Law Clerk at the Puerto Rico Court of Appeals. His commitment to excellence and client-focused approach continues to be the cornerstone of his legal practice.

Besides his family, his other passion is rescuing and fostering dogs until a new home is found.
